1 REVISION If the weather is good, ...

- Mrs Grant* If the weather is good, we'll stay here two more days.
- Kara* That's great! If you stay here longer, what will you do?
- Duncan* If it isn't too expensive, we'll hire a canoe for a tour of Loch Ness.
- Abi* Perhaps we'll see Nessie if we go out early enough!
- Mr Grant* But if the weather isn't good, we won't stay.
- Duncan* Yes, if the weather is bad, we'll go to Edinburgh.
- Mrs Grant* And if we visit Edinburgh, we'll go to the castle.
- Abi* If we find a nice kilt shop, we'll look for a kilt for dad's birthday.
- Kara* Are you sure he'll wear a kilt if you find one for him?
- Duncan* You're right. If we buy a kilt, he won't wear it!

// ● p. 115

- Alec* Mum, Kara and I want to go camping.
- Mum* Camping? Is that a good idea? That's what I ask myself.
- Dad* Oh, I'm sure the kids can look after themselves, Kate.
- Jamie* Of course we can look after ourselves!
- Kara* Don't forget Jamie has taught himself to cook!
- Dad* Ah yes, I hear you're good at cooking soup for yourself, Jamie!
- Mum* Well, OK then. You go camping and enjoy yourselves. But I won't blame myself if you come back hungry!

b)

- You* Hi. This is Simon Koch.
I'm phoning to confirm our reservation.
- B&B* Thanks for phoning. I'm sorry, but our family room isn't free at that time. But we can give you two double rooms for the same price.
- You* Two double rooms are OK.
- B&B* Great. Two double rooms from 14th to 22nd July.
- You* Can we pay in euros?
- B&B* Yes, no problem. It's a total price of 610 euros.
- You* Is that with breakfast?
- B&B* Yes, including breakfast. What time will you arrive?
- You* We'll arrive in the evening.
- B&B* In the evening is fine.
- You* Thank you very much.
- B&B* No problem. Bye.
